Reinventing Real Estate

Engel & Völkers looks back on a long history that has its origins in Hamburg, Germany. The company foundations were laid when Dirk C. Engel established Engel & Cie in December 1977. As the exclusive representative of a US brokerage firm, he sold real estate to German investors from downtown Hamburg. Several years later, Dirk C. Engel and Christian Völkers decided to open a brokerage office in Hamburg's Elbe suburbs. The first business premises were a villa on the historic "Elbchaussee" boulevard, whose façade still features as an integral part of the brand's iconic logo. The two founders went on to develop a property business that would change the industry from the ground up.

By introducing the franchise system, implementing innovative marketing concepts and continually expanding into internationally sought-after first and second home markets, Engel & Völkers left brokerage practices that were previously standard behind it and grew into a globally successful luxury brand. Engel & Völkers now delivers innovative solutions to the traditional real estate sector. With its digital tools and IT products, the company is setting new standards in the realisation of smart solutions for property brokerage, and the provision of excellent services relating to all aspect of real estate.

Power of Staging

When visiting your property, the goal is to strengthen a potential buyer's ability to envision your house as their own. In fact, 81% of buyers say property staging makes it easier to visualize the property as their future home. This can be as simple as rearranging furniture and making a few decor adjustments to highlight your property's best features and prompt potential purchasers to make an offer.

Property staging will help present your property at its best, as well as to capture the emotion of the buyer, who will be making one of the biggest purchases of their lifetime.

Establishing a Listing Strategy

Your property is our focus. At Engel & Völkers, we draw on our extensive experience and up-to-date market statistic balanced with your goals and timeline to determine the optimal asking price to list your property. By conducting a market analysis with a local expert as well as understanding potential buyer objections and the key advantages of your property, we will recommend the ideal pricing strategy to sell your property.

Comparative Market Analysis

Pricing is critical, but not very well understood. The goal of the listing agent should be to find the range in which the house will sell, give the seller an honest assessment of where the house fits in the range, offer suggestions that might improve value beyond cost, and then recommend a starting price that will deliver the highest sale price.

Pricing Strategy

Market Value

Seller's Market

Inventory is low. Properly priced homes generally sell within the first month of listing. If you have not received an offer within this time period, the price is too high.

Normal Market

Inventory is meeting demand. There is no perceived advantage to either buyers or sellers.

Buyer's Market

There are plenty of homes for sale in every price range and area. Homes are priced within the range of similar homes.

Timing is Everything

A new listing will generate interest from advisors and potential buyers. After they view the property, interest will decline. This makes it CRUCIAL to list your property at the right price when it first hits the market.

Day 1

Increasing Awareness

A new property on the market generates a high level of interest

Week 1

Peak market awareness during the first two weeks on the market

Week 2-6

Declining awareness & interest as other new properties arrive on the market.

James.Alden@EVRealEstate.com

James is passionate about living a harmonious and balanced life. With his calm, professional approach he loves pulling the emotional stress out of buying or selling a home by providing the bespoke, personalized service for which Engel & Volkers is known worldwide.

He graduated from Missouri State University with a degree in international business after completing a real estate internship in Barcelona, Spain. Traveling to surrounding cities in Europe increased his love for meeting new people, and getting to know their cultures and lifestyles.

Upon returning to the U.S., James excelled in management and customer service in the restaurant industry. He will tell you, he can handle anything after that experience.

His interest in real estate was reignited during the purchase of his first home with the help of an Engel & Volkers advisor, who introduced him to a variety of architectural styles in St. Louis ranging from his own 1916 brick bungalow to the Cape Cods in Kirkwood. After starting his family in that home, he knew he wanted to help others have the absolute joy of finding a home as well.

When James is not helping clients or working in the E&V St. Louis shop, he is home with his wife Tori, and their son, making them laugh with funny faces and made-up songs. He enjoys spending time with family and friends, playing classic board games, and tending to an increasing number of houseplants that may or may not be taking over his home. A true Saint Louisan, he loves adventuring to the parks and attractions for which the Lou is known.

Live Your Luxury

At Engel & Völkers, we believe in clients for life. Not only during, but well after the purchase of a home, our advisors connect you with experts to help you continue making the most of the walls and community that surround you. Luxury found in the little moments that when combined create the essence — and the intangible qualities — that make a house, “home.”

Why Engel & Völkers

Reporting & Analytics

We will discuss the timing of showings, the handling of pets and people, the preparation for each showing and how to engage the potential buyer.

Showing Time

All agents must schedule a showing through Showing Time, a software that notifies you of who is showing your house and when. You will choose a lead time/showing instructions most comfortable for you and your household to make sure the home is "show ready."

Supra Access

Your home will be secure during the entire listing process. The Supra box will hold the key to your home, and only authorized users will have access to the key when they schedule a showing. Supra creates showing and listing activity alerts.

Pre-Showing Calls

We call every agent who registers before they show. We know the agent probably doesn't know all of the great features of your home, so we give them a few tips to point out to their buyers.

Showing Feedback

We need to understand the meaning of showing feedback and when it matters. After every showing, we ask the agent for feedback to gauge the buyer's interest and get an overall sense of how the house is perceived. You will see all the showing feedback on your home.

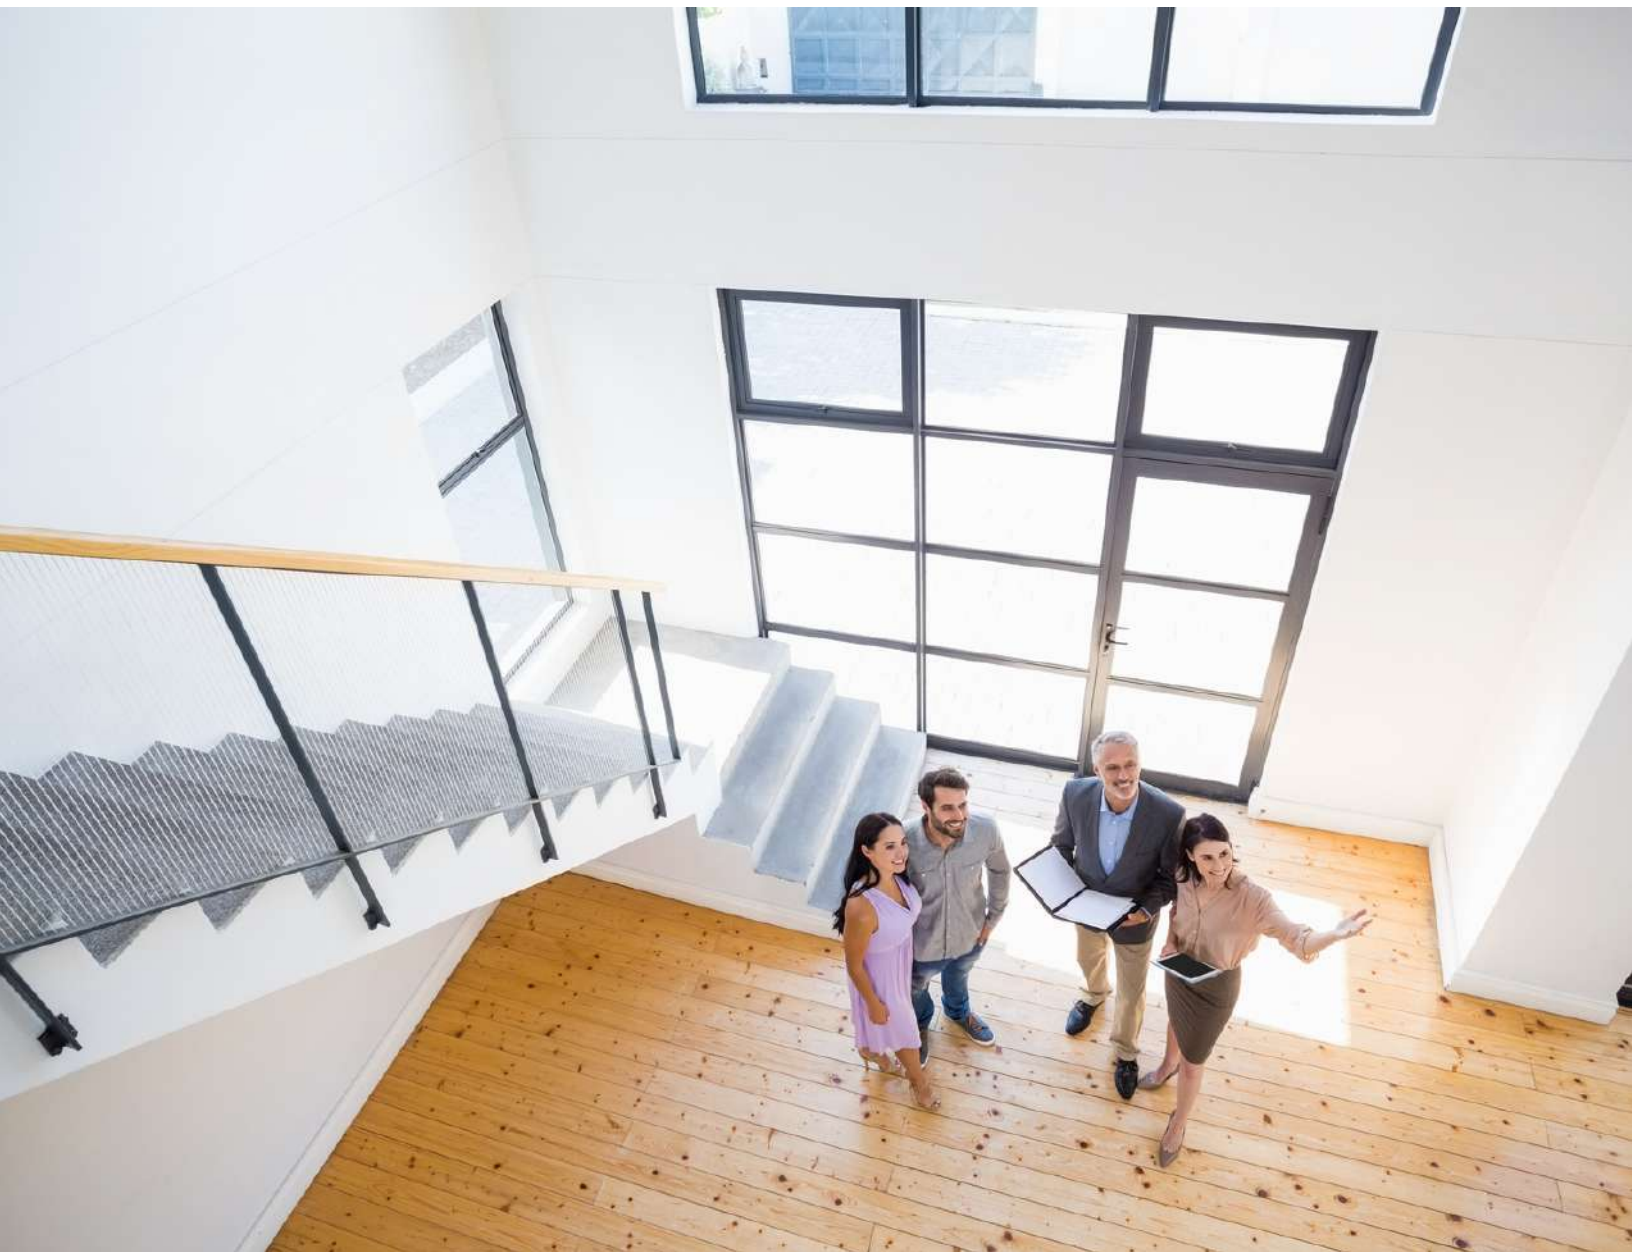

Why Engel & Völkers

From Offer to Closing

Our service focuses on quickly relaying purchase offers and advising on the submission of counteroffers, the negotiating process, inspections, contractual issues, and closing preparation. While we communicate often throughout this process, it is our role to stand firm and skillfully negotiate on your behalf to achieve the best results for you. We will assist when escrow opens, be present at closing, and handle the exchange of keys.

Ideal Conditions for a successful closing:

- Agreement between all parties concerning the purchase price and contingencies
- Proper preparation of all required documents
- Regular communications between all parties
- Escrow management
- Full service at closing
- Assistance during the transition of property

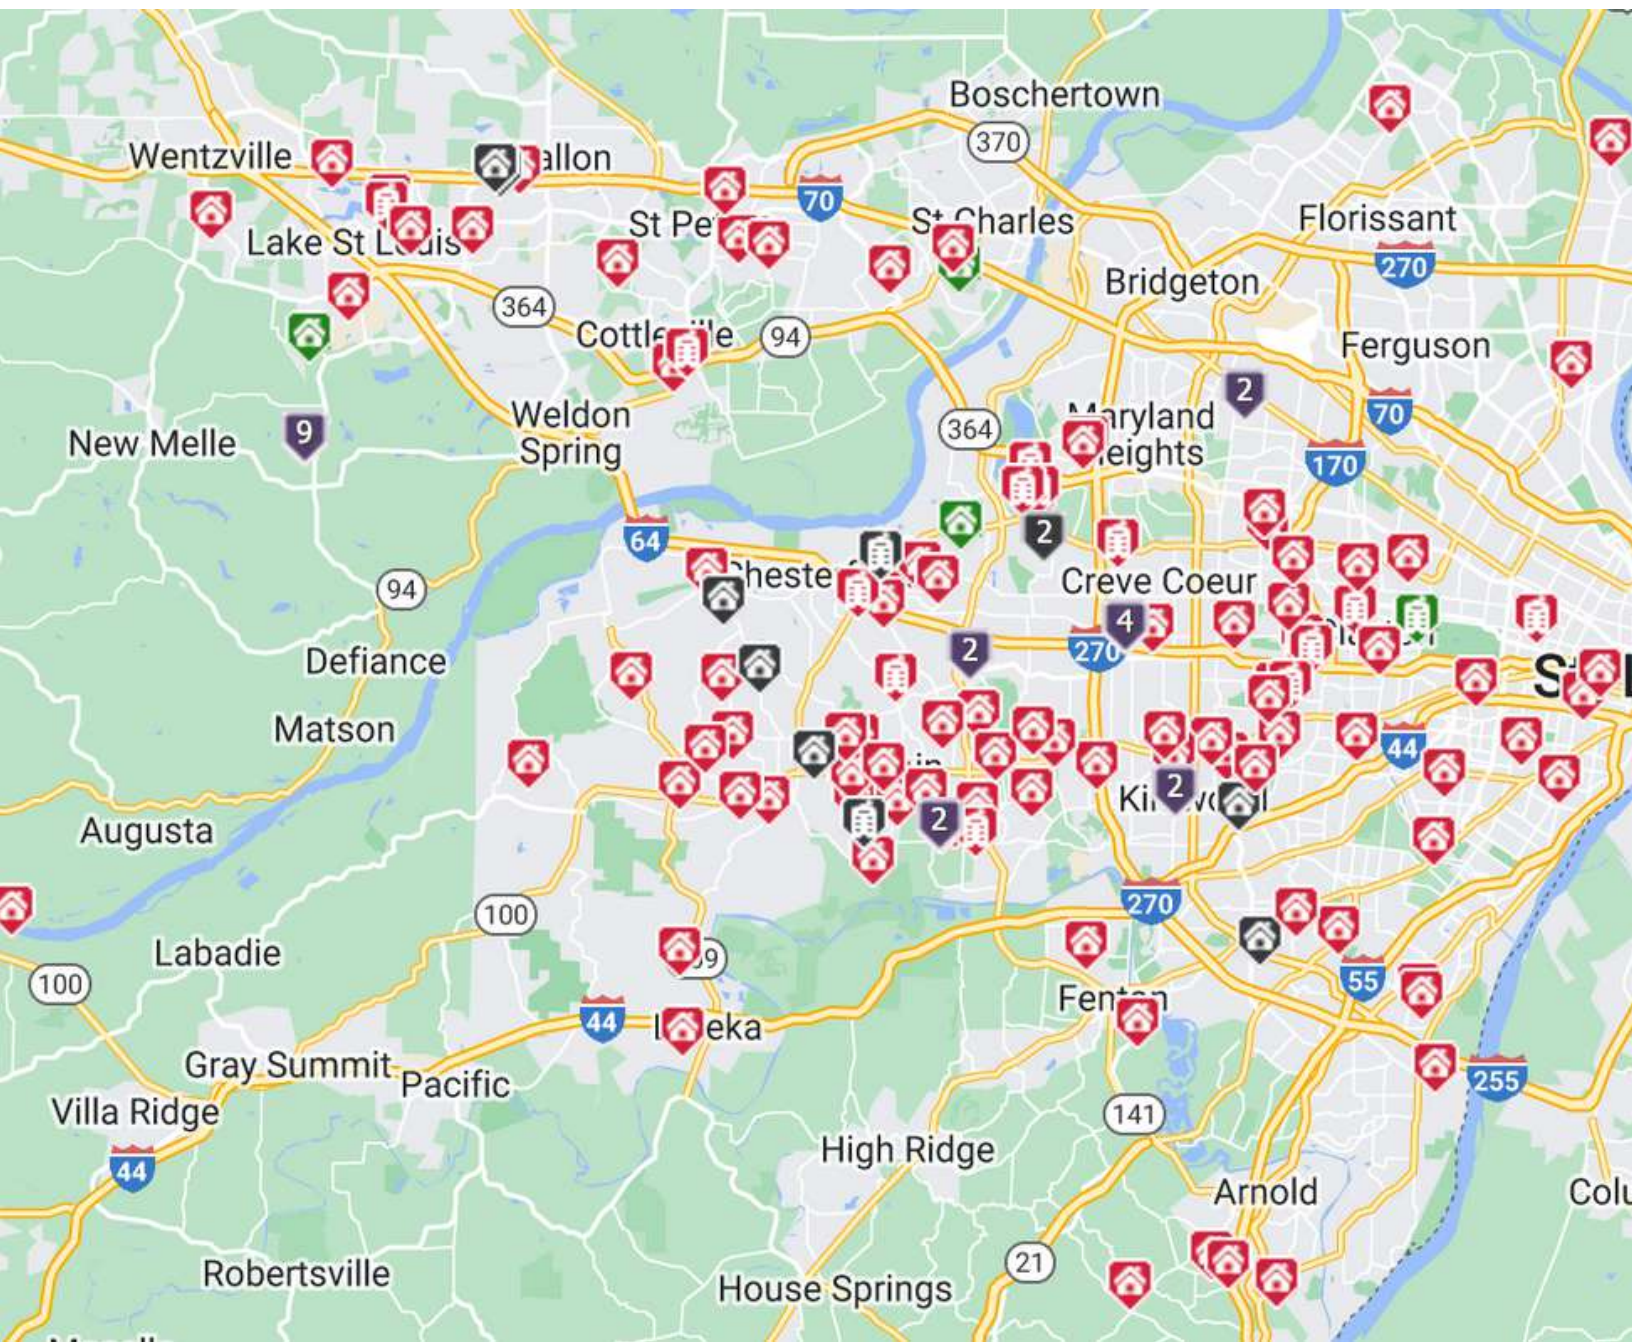

Why Engel & Völkers

Social Proof of Success

My wife and I initially made contact with Ryan Zimmer through Zillow. I almost always would interview several agents on something as important as a home purchase (I research everything). Both through initial phone conversations and our first showing with Ryan we decided we wanted him as our agent, he was that good! Let me be specific on why I give Ryan my highest recommendation, he puts his client's interest first, he is knowledgeable about the local market, he is well connected with other agents, and he has an extensive network of specialists that he works with that helped us evaluate potential costs for a house needing an upgrade.

My family has now used Alfonso 3 separate times in the past year. Searching for a home, buying and selling is especially stressful during a pandemic. The best thing I did was choose the right person to guide me through the process. I believe the saying “you don't know what you don't know” applied to me (and probably a lot of people like me). Alfonso and his team “did know” and from listing to closing the professionalism and superior process made for a smooth transaction.

Tricia and I wanted to follow up my call to you to formally thank you for all of your efforts and guidance with Clare on finding and contracting a house. These are especially unique times and being able to rely on your expertise in the market as well as construction was critical. What most impressed me, though, was how you immediately focused on listening to Clare and Phillip and then discerned their needs. Your calm and steadfast approach helped them to remain encouraged. The relationship was more authentic rather than transactional which I believe we experienced before.

We are confident that our daughter and future son-in-law have found the house they were meant for.

What a great experience! For starters, I don't have much experience with real estate. I live out of town, was selling my home in St Louis and was nervous about the 'long distance' aspect of the whole thing. [Engel & Völkers] was professional, market savvy and was confident and reassuring. They made the whole process easy and painless, and I always felt they had my best interest at heart. I would highly recommend them

We were looking to buy our first home in the St. Louis area and hadn't had much luck finding the right home or agent. Then we met Alfonso through Zillow and knew as soon as we met him he had a level of expertise and personality that set him apart from other agents. He and his team really walked us through the whole process of buying our first home. I can't imagine any other agent would have been so helpful. He was very easy to get a hold of and very available for showings. I could tell it was very important to Alfonso that we get the right house for our family and a great deal. It helped that he was so familiar with the area and experienced at buying/selling homes. Not long after, he helped my mom sell her home in under a week! I 100% recommend Alfonso and look forward to working with him again!
