your edge in a competitive real estate world....

#teamedge
www.teamedgere.com

welcome!!

A successful real estate buying strategy is simple when pared down to its core components. It hinges on picking the right team, understanding your non-negotiables in a property, making a smart offer, high level negotiation skills and successfully navigating escrow.

#teamedge

www.teamedgere.com.

Let's take a look at each core component.

1.

PICKING THE RIGHT TEAM

#teamedge

www.teamedgere.com

PICK YOUR AGENT

A man with glasses and a light blue shirt has a very long, thin, orange nose. He is pointing his right index finger upwards.

JIMMY

A woman with glasses and a light blue shirt is holding a red rotary telephone. She has a sad or frustrated expression on her face.

DEBBIE

A child wearing a blue mask and a red cape is lifting a large, red-outlined dumbbell. The dumbbell is disproportionately large for the child.

All agents are not created equal! In fact, the barrier to entry in CA is surprisingly low.

At #teamedge, we are lifelong learners who constantly hone our skills and knowledge to make us better agents for our clients.

This matters in the fast moving world of real estate.

DUAL AGENCY

You need and deserve independent representation!!

#teamedge

www.teamedgere.com

Some buyers think they'll get the house only if they let the listing agent write their offer.

But think about this. The seller wants a higher price and you want a lower price. The seller wants to sell as is. You want a credit for the old roof.

What could possibly go wrong?

#teamedge

www.teamedgere.com

Plenty.

You need a person at the negotiating table focused on making the deal work for you.

Get yourself independent representation. You deserve it.

MONEY QUESTIONS

Are you using a mortgage to buy your property or cash?

#teamedge

www.teamedgere.com

If you are using a mortgage to buy your property, your mortgage lender will be an important part of your team.

Sellers in the beach cities like short escrows. You'll need a lender who can proactively get things done for you.

We have several great lenders on speed dial. Ask us for names.

UNDERSTANDING YOUR REAL DEAL BREAKERS

#teamedge

www.teamedgere.com

WANTS VS. NEEDS

The best time to figure this out is before you fall in love with a house.

#teamedge

#teamedge

www.teamedgere.com

Real estate moves fast. Most buyers tend to find the same properties appealing. You have to be ready to move fast when you find "the one" because others will like the same "one."

Sometimes, for multiple reasons, you have to compromise on the property you go after.

#teamedge

www.teamedgere.com

Either way, you need to be prepared to make quick decisions. Do your homework before you start looking at properties and make a list of your must haves to refer to when emotions start running hot.

3.

MAKING A SUCCESSFUL OFFER

#teamedge

www.teamedgere.com

MAKING A SUCCESSFUL OFFER

#teamedge

#teamedge

www.teamedgere.com

We feel strongly that successful offers are comprised of 3 components:

- truly understanding what the seller wants (hint: it's not always the highest price)
- understanding market conditions
- writing clean offers that scream "this buyer and agent are easy to work with"

#teamedge

www.teamedgere.com

Something is motivating the seller to sell and it's not always about money.

We work hard to uncover that information on our buyers' behalf to craft an offer with the highest appeal of the bunch.

#teamedge

www.teamedgere.com

Market conditions matter.

In a buyers' market, buyers have an edge in negotiations over sellers. Here's hoping....

In a sellers' market, sellers have the edge.

#teamedge

www.teamedgere.com

As your buyer's representative,
we can help you achieve success in either scenario.

The key is understanding the context/trendline and focusing on the components you can leverage under the circumstances.

#teamedge

www.teamedgere.com

You'll see us share a lot of trendline information. We're more than a little obsessed.

You'll appreciate that about us before we're done. 😎

Check out our blog Get The Trendline.

Clean offers matter, too!

At the end of the day, the seller wants escrow to close, period.

A clean offer with all the i's dotted and t's crossed tells the seller and seller's agent that we're organized and likely to get the deal done.

#teamedge

4.

NINJA LEVEL NEGOTIATION SKILLS

#teamedge

www.teamedgere.com

At this point, you've made the offer, but there is still so much negotiating to do!

There will likely be counter offers and there will likely be repairs to negotiate in escrow.

You'll want a strong negotiator in your corner.

#teamedge

www.teamedgere.com

Tracy was a high stakes litigator in her first career. She learned a few things about negotiations. She makes this skill a priority for the whole team.

We're tough when needed.
We're not bullies but we are definitely always scouting advantages for our clients.

5.

SUCCESSFULLY NAVIGATING ESCROW

#teamedge

www.teamedgere.com

the exciting world of ESCROW

Lots of important stuff happens in escrow and the time can fly by. It's so very important to manage the time and priorities.

#teamedge

#teamedge
www.teamedgere.com

Escrow is not for the faint of heart!

There are important inspections to schedule on tight timeframes, reports have to be evaluated and repair requests need to be considered and negotiated.

All of this can be tricky.

#teamedge

www.teamedgere.com

And the disclosures! Yikes. This is California and everybody is CYA'g to make sure they don't have to see you later in court.

Having an agent who first understands the disclosures, and then can explain them will be very helpful.

#teamedge

www.teamedgere.com

Did we mention Tracy, our team leader, was an attorney in her first career?

She understands the disclosures. And she's pretty good at explaining them, too.

Making sure you understand them is a priority for us.

#teamedge

5 steps! Easy peasy.

We hope you found this 10,000 foot level buying guide to be helpful.

in conclusion...

There are no guarantees we can get you a certain property at a certain price or on certain terms, but knowing the in's and out's of the process and where you can exert the most influence will certainly help.

kind words from our buyers

Tracy really listened to what we told her we needed in a home. She found us the perfect home in a great school district and negotiated a deal that worked for us. I'm a lawyer and was very comfortable with how Tracy negotiated on our behalf. We're very happy with the outcome and our two boys can't wait to sleep in their new bedrooms.

kind words from our buyers

I was a single woman who wanted to buy my first home. I didn't know where to start. Tracy worked with me to find an adorable little house that fit my budget and fit my long list of wants and needs. I highly recommend Tracy for anybody who wants an agent who listens and does what she says she'll do.

kind words from our buyers

My wife and I were losing our long term rental and knew it was time to move our family to our own home. Tracy really listened to what we need and what we thought we wanted. We couldn't afford the exact neighborhood we wanted, but Tracy introduced us to nearby neighborhoods that fit our budget and we found the perfect home for our family.

kind words from our buyers

My wife's grandfather was going to help us buy our first home and he found Tracy through a referral. I was super impressed with how well she worked with all the generations involved in our purchase. She didn't hesitate when I asked if my real estate agent mother from another state could be involved.

kind words from our buyers

I was introduced to Tracy by a passing acquaintance who knew I wanted to buy a couple of rental properties for my kids. I explained my objectives and Tracy found me properties that were perfect as rentals that will always be in high demand. She also helped put tenants in both properties. Her keen eye for business and local market knowledge was a huge advantage in the process.

kind words from our buyers

Tracy sold my home in Santa Monica when I retired and she helped me find an agent in my next community. As life goes, I wanted to buy a small condo in LA as a second home a couple years later and I called Tracy to help. I had an idea I wanted to be near lightrail and Tracy introduced me to some really interesting ideas, including a couple of historic buildings in DTLA. At every step, she told me the advantages and disadvantages and I'm very happy with the unit I ended up purchasing.

kind words from our buyers

We met Tracy when we were long distance shopping for a second home in Venice. We had very specific ideas about what we wanted and Tracy worked tirelessly with us over a long period of time while we searched for "the one." My wife and I have very different style preferences. We ended up closing on a beautiful home that was the perfect compromise between our styles. Tracy helped us understand every step in escrow and we felt very comfortable with the process, even though we were almost 3000 miles away. After closing, she met us late at night with the keys and we were ecstatic. Her local market knowledge and practical advice were invaluable to us.
