REASONS TO BUY A HOME

Deciding whether to jump into the housing market or rent instead is rarely an easy decision – especially if you’re a first-time homebuyer. And even if you’ve bought a home before and are contemplating investing in another, it’s helpful to be reminded of all the wonderful reasons to become a homeowner.

➤ Quality of Life

Our living situation directly impacts how we feel about our quality of life, which is why many people dream of the day they have a home to call their own.

➤ Financial Health

Buying a home is one of the best ways to protect and grow your wealth. Real estate will typically ride out a market’s ups and downs and appreciate with time. You’ll also build equity as you pay down your mortgage.

➤ Stability

Rental prices over the last 10 years in the U.S. have increased by over 42%.^{*} In contrast, your fixed-rate mortgage payments on your home won't rise at all.

➤ Tax Deductions

Homeowners receive tax deductions for mortgage interest and property taxes, which are both deductible on an individual's federal income tax return.

➤ Independence

The freedom to do whatever they wish with their homes is a big incentive for many new homeowners, while others can't wait to get out from under the thumb of their landlord.

CHOOSING YOUR AGENT

When you're buying a home, it's crucial to work with a qualified real estate agent. Not just a professional, but an amazing agent and a market expert who will best serve your specific needs. So how do you ensure you're hiring an amazing real estate agent? Start by asking them the following questions.

5 Critical Questions to Ask A Potential Agent (And What to Look for in Their Answers)

1. Can you send me some information about yourself?

Look for professionalism and consistency. What are their professional accomplishments? How do they approach their work? The best agent is a business person who has a strategy and solid support system.

2. How long have you been in real estate?

The average Realtor has 10 years of experience. But while longevity is important, even more telling is the number of transactions they have closed or been involved in. Ask about their team's dynamic and accomplishments if they're a newer agent.

3. Do you have references from past clients?

An agent who provides 5-star service and is proud of their work will be happy to provide references. Look at their ratings and reviews on sites like Google and Yelp.

4. What will you do to keep me informed?

Do you want daily or weekly reports from your agent? Will the agent be able to meet these expectations? Determine how much communication you want, and then find an agent who will give you the attention and time you want and deserve.

5. Can you provide me with further resources I may need?

From market reports to pricing trends, top agents have resources at their disposal. In addition, local experts have built relationships with their extended team of professionals and can often get priority service should a need arise.

YOUR BUYING POWER

If you're in the market for a new home or investment property, one of the first questions you'll probably ask is, "What can we afford?"

A common misunderstanding is that a home's list price determines whether or not you can purchase it. But that price doesn't include housing-related expenses, such as annual property taxes, homeowner insurance, or any maintenance. Remember, you'll live with your monthly payment, not the sales price.

Therefore, what you should instead ask is, "What is our buying power?"

BUYING POWER DEFINED

Your buying power is comprised of the total amount of money you have available each month for a mortgage payment. This means the money you have each month after fixed bills and expenses, as well as any money you've saved for a down payment, the proceeds from the sale of your current home (if applicable), and the amount of money you're qualified to borrow.

WHY BUYING POWER MATTERS

Once you have clarity on your buying power, you'll be able to buy the home you want, instead of settling for a home because you feel it's the only one you can afford.

It will also prevent you from becoming "house poor," a common term for someone who's put all their money toward the down payment, leaving them nothing left over for fees outside of their monthly house payment.

Both scenarios can negatively impact the lifestyle you want to live. Understanding your buying power can help you get the home you want without sacrificing the lifestyle you desire.

YOUR BUYING POWER

Buying power is calculated by adding the money you've saved for a down payment and/or the money you made from selling your home (minus fees and mortgage payoff) to all of your sources of income and investments that could be used to make your monthly payment.

The general rule of thumb is that your monthly housing costs should be at or less than 28% of your monthly gross income. This number should include your mortgage payment towards your loan principal and interest as well as your property taxes and insurance (PITI).

Use the worksheet below to figure out an estimate of your buying power.

1.	Monthly income before taxes	$
2.	Multiply line 1 by 0.28	X 0.28
3.	Monthly mortgage payment (PITI) should not exceed this amount	= $
4.	Monthly income before taxes	$
5.	Multiply line 4 by 0.36	X 0.36
6.	Total monthly payments on all debts (including mortgage) should not exceed this amount	= $
7.	Subtract the total monthly payments on all outstanding debts (e.g. car loans, credit cards, student loans, etc.)	-$
8.	The monthly mortgage payment should not exceed this amount	$
9.	Look at line 3 and line 8. The lower figure is an estimate of the maximum mortgage payment in consideration of your income and debts	$
10.	Multiply line 9 by 0.80	X 0.80
11.	This equals a portion of your mortgage payment that is the principal and interest only	$

SAVING FOR A DOWN PAYMENT

Your buying power is also impacted by the down payment you plan to make on your next home because the more you're able to put down, the less you will have to borrow. In addition, with a down payment of 20% or more, you won't have to purchase private mortgage insurance (PMI) and you may also be able to negotiate a lower interest rate.

Read on for advice on how to save for your down payment.

FIRST-TIME BUYERS

If you're thinking of buying a home one day, one of the first steps to take is to start saving for a down payment. Here are some tips to make saving easier.

- 1. Set a savings goal. One way to figure out how much to save is to use the average sales price for homes that are similar to what you want and figure out your target down payment percentage.
- 2. Cut back on expenses. Review your monthly expenses and look for ways to save. Think about items you can live without or cut back on temporarily while you're saving.
- 3. Look for ways to boost your income. Get a side job or sell items online or at a garage sale to increase your income in a short amount of time. Be sure to save any windfalls you get, including your annual income tax refund or work bonuses.
- 4. Check out home-buying programs. Your state, county or local government may offer special programs, such as grants, for first-time buyers to use.
- 5. Ask your family. Twenty-three percent of first-time buyers were given money from family or friends to use toward the down payment of their home.*

SAVING FOR A DOWN PAYMENT

REPEAT BUYERS

If you're thinking of buying another home, here are more ways to save more money, in addition to the tips listed above:

- 1. Rent a room. If you have an income flat (or mother-in-law unit) attached to your home, rent it out and channel the income into a high-interest savings account.
- 2. Make your money work for you. If you don't plan to buy for at least five years, invest it and let the compound interest work for you. Discuss this option with your financial planner or broker to see if this is ideal for you and your goals.
- 3. Tap into your 401(k). If you have a 401(k) plan, you may be allowed to borrow a portion of it, the lesser of up to $50,000 or half of its value, for your down payment. Remember, it's a loan so you'll have to pay it back. If you leave or lose your job before you've repaid the loan, you'll have between 60 to 90 days to repay the balance or face stiff taxes and penalties.

INVESTORS

Whether you're buying a second home or a rental property, here are a couple more tips to save for a down payment.

- 1. Tap into your equity. If you've paid off or paid down your mortgage on your primary home, you may be able to tap into your equity to purchase another property. Contact your lender to learn more about a HELOC or home equity loan.
- 2. Get a partner. Find a friend or relative who's willing to purchase property with you. Typically, you'll split the costs and profits equally. Just make sure to work with an attorney to create a partnership agreement to fit your situation.

GETTING PREAPPROVED

In the last year, 80% of buyers financed their home purchase. First-time buyers who financed their home typically financed 91% of their home, and repeat buyers financed 81%.* If you will need a loan to purchase your next property, the most important step you can take is to get preapproved.

Getting preapproved gives you clarity on how much you can afford, which makes it crucial to do before you start your home search. You've estimated your buying power already in this guide; a preapproval is concrete proof of that number. Knowing it will ensure that you don't accidentally fall in love with a home outside your budget.

In addition, having a preapproval letter proves to sellers that you are serious about buying and that you will be able to make good on your offer. This is an important competitive advantage in tight markets like the Central Valley. You don't want to lose out on the home of your dreams just because someone else had all their ducks in a row and you didn't.

PREAPPROVAL VS PREQUALIFICATION

The two terms are often confused because they are so similar. But in reality, they are very different and it's important that you understand the distinction.

- Prequalification — An estimate of how much you could qualify to borrow. It doesn't entail a credit check or official documentation.
- Preapproval — Proof of your buying power. It requires a full loan application, a credit check, and documentation regarding your income and assets.

FINDING YOUR NEXT HOME

Whether you're a first-time buyer or a seasoned homeowner, shopping for a new home can feel daunting. For more than half of home buyers, the most difficult step in the home buying process was finding the right property at 59%, which was even higher for Younger Millennials at 60%.*

That's why we teach our buyer clients to focus on the WHY, WHERE, and WHAT.

The first step to finding your ideal home is determining WHY you want to move. Do you need more space? Access to your preferred schools? Less maintenance? Or are you tired of throwing money away on rent when you could be building equity? Pinpointing the reasons why you want to move can help you assess your priorities for your home search.

Next, you need to determine WHERE you want to buy. Do you prefer a rural, urban, or suburban setting? How long of a commute are you willing to make? Which areas feed into your preferred schools? These decisions will impact your day-to-day life while you live in the home.

Finally, think about WHAT kind of home you want to live in. Start with the basics, like your ideal number of bedrooms, bathrooms, and square footage. Do you prefer a one-story or two-story layout? Do you want a swimming pool?

Keep in mind, you may not find a home with all of your "wants," or even all of your "needs." If you're faced with a tough choice about how or what to compromise in your home search, return to your WHY.

MAKING AN OFFER

Once you find a home that fits your WHY, WHERE, and WHAT, it's time to make an offer. And yes, a high offer price gets attention. But most sellers consider a variety of factors when evaluating an offer. With that in mind, here are three other tactics you can utilize to sweeten your proposal and outshine your competition.

Put Down a Sizable Deposit

Buyers can show sellers that they're serious about their offer and have "skin in the game" by putting down a large earnest money deposit. We can help you determine an appropriate deposit to offer based on your specific circumstances.

Ask for Few (or No) Contingencies

Buyers in a competitive market often volunteer to waive certain contingencies, which are clauses that allow one or both parties to back out of the agreement if certain conditions are not met. We can help you assess the risks and benefits involved in this offer strategy.

Offer a Flexible Closing Date and/or Leaseback Option

People sell their homes for a wide variety of reasons, and flexible terms that work with their personal situations can sometimes make all the difference. We can reach out to the listing agent to find out the seller's preferred terms, and then collaborate with you to write a compelling offer that works for both parties.

YOUR FIDUCIARY ADVOCATE

We can help you compete in today's market with offers that are designed to win over both the seller and their listing agent, without letting you get steamrolled.
