

Most popular Neighborhoods in Santa Ana

Floral Park (92706):

Floral Park is known for its historic charm and well-preserved homes. With tree-lined streets and a mix of architectural styles (Spanish Revival, Craftsman, Tudor), it attracts buyers looking for a blend of character and community. The 92706 zip code is home to its annual Floral Park Home and Garden Tour, showcasing the neighborhood's uniqueness.

West Floral Park (92706):

This neighborhood is adjacent to Floral Park and offers a more relaxed vibe. Residents enjoy mid-century homes, large lots, and privacy while still being close to Santa Ana's amenities. West Floral Park shares the 92706 zip code and the area's overall prestigious reputation.

Park Santiago (92706, 92701):

Located near Santiago Park, Park Santiago blends historic homes with a family-friendly atmosphere. Residents benefit from nearby nature trails and recreational facilities. The neighborhood spans both the 92706 and 92701 zip codes, offering a variety of Craftsman, Spanish Colonial, and mid-century styles.

Mabury Park (92701):

Known for its suburban feel, Mabury Park lies in the 92701 zip code. With easy access to downtown Santa Ana and major freeways, it attracts commuters. The homes are more modest, and the community enjoys a quieter, more residential environment while remaining connected to Santa Ana's cultural scene.

Wilshire Square (92707):

In the 92707 zip code, Wilshire Square features charming vintage homes and walkable streets. Architectural styles include Spanish Colonial and early 20th-century bungalows. The neighborhood is known for fostering a close-knit community, with events and gatherings that maintain its warm and welcoming environment.
